Brach Hotel

Maison Souquet

10 rue de Bruxelles, 75018 Paris

BRACH own its codes, a personality, a healthy mind in a healthy body. Inviting and homely, it reflects the values of sharing and balance. An ode to cultural pioneers of the past, blended with a cosmopolitan and modern Paris. Multi-cultural influences from Africa, Asia and Brazil resonate there too. Intimate and open at the same time, BRACH is a combination of contrasts and opposites that complement each other without ever clashing.

A temple to hedonism, the Maison Souquet is home to 20 rooms, hidden behind an understated facade signaled by two red lanterns. The bawdy, wanton legend of the City of Light was forged in the area around Montmartre. In a building that served as a pleasure house during the Belle Époque, one of the most lavish and licentious pages in the history of Paris has been brought to life. Jacques Garcia has applied his talent to recreating the mystery, elegance, exoticism, sensuality, and
